

XXV WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY ROME 2024

The 25th edition of the World Congress of Philosophy (XXV WCP) will take place in Rome, 1-8 August 2024, and for the first time it will feature a thematic session on Game Theory. The congress is the largest meeting of philosophy worldwide, and provides a unique chance to display the most interesting research to a diverse audience. We are writing to invite submissions of papers in the area of both foundations of game theory and its applications broadly conceived, including - but by no means restricted to- the following topics:

Game Theory and Category Theory;
Epistemic Foundations of Game Theory;
Game-theoretic approaches to Aggregation and Voting protocols;
Evolution of Conventions and Cooperation;
Evolution of Norms and Morality;
Game Theory and Ethics;
Game Theory and Social Ontology;
Game Theory and Mechanism Design.

Submissions of proposals for workshops, panels, roundtables on any area of game theory broadly conceived will also be considered. Acting on behalf of the Organizing Committee, we will do our best to make sure that our area of expertise is well-represented at the Congress. Prospective proponents should contact one of us. Unfortunately, due to severe budget constraints, any such initiative will have to be self-funded.
